Mercer Island, WA – In his first visit to the Puget Sound region in nearly two years, President George W. Bush will be featured at a fundraising event for Eighth district Congressman Dave Reichert in Medina on Friday June 16th. The mid-morning reception is a joint fundraiser benefiting Reichert's reelection campaign and the Washington State Republican Party.

"I'm proud to have President Bush visit Washington's Eighth district," said Reichert. "I grew up in southeast King County and have lived here for over 50 years. As the oldest of seven from a working class family, it is an incredible honor for someone like me to represent this district in Congress and to welcome the President of the United States to this beautiful place my family and I call home."

"Although the President and I don't agree on everything, I have great respect for the tremendous responsibility the leader of the free world must bear every day. I welcome President Bush and I welcome his support for my reelection campaign."
